FEBRUARY 1946

NO. 2

This column is run so that beginners in coin collecting may become acquainted with the different dealers, advertising in this bulletin.

Each month there will be a different dealer recommended.

THE WHITMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY

The Whitman Publishing Company and its affiliated firms rank as the fourth largest printing establishment in America and is known as the largest company of its kind.

Plants are located in Racine, Wisconsin, Poughkeepsie, New York, and St. Louis, Missouri. All merchandise is finished and shipped from the Racine Plant where the company maintains its home office. Every facility for printing and publishing is available, and the success of the company in supplying many popular books, games, playing cards, greeting cards, and kindred items, is based upon the principle of quantity production, quality, and low price.

The familiar HANDBOOK OF UNITED STATES COINS is a typical example of Whitman's ability to produce popular merchandise at low cost.

Mr. Richard Yeoman, who manages the department for collectors' supplies tells us that the increase of interest in coin collecting is very strongly reflected in the demand for the HANDBOOK OF UNITED STATES COINS and the Series of Coin Folders which his company has been manufacturing steadily since 1935. During the war years, he explains, the number of coin collectors continued to increase as a result of the momentum gained during the commemorative coin years. Unfortunately, restrictions faced by his company of materials and personnel prevented a volume of production that would equal the demand for these products. During 1946, with improved supplies of materials, Whitman Coin Folders should be available in much greater quantities than heretofore.

All advertisers using red ● will buy coins in same condition as offered for sale @ 20% less than their selling price. In all cases limited quantities will be bought. All advertisers agree to make a full cash refund on any coin returned within 5 days, after receipt of same.

All advertising is edited to conform to requirements of bulletin. 8 point type is smallest used. I personally recommend all advertisers using bulletin space.

BOOK REVIEW

"RIBBONS AND MEDALS," by Captain H. Taprell Dorling, D.S.O., R.N. ("Taffrail"). Crown octavo. 189 pp. XVI plates of British and foreign ribbons in colour and approximately 250 illustrations of orders and medals in black and white. Cloth. London, 1944. Enlarged and revised edition.

Published essentially as a guide for the layman and general collector of orders, decorations and medals in 1916, several editions have since been issued totaling no less than 30,000 copies. It is an enviable record which bespeaks the author's contribution to numismatics, in spite of his modest admission that this work ". . . does not pretend to give a full, authoritative or complete account of all Orders, Decorations, and Medals . . ." This is understandable, in view of the extensive historical background surrounding many of the awards.

The greater part of the work is devoted to the British and Colonial awards with a complete summary under which the numerous orders and military awards were issued. However, mention is also made in like manner of awards of the following countries:

Egypt - United States - Former Montenegrin Order and Medals
France - Greece - Orders and Decorations of the Netherlands
Poland - Hedjaz - Norway - Czechoslovakia - Belgium
Russia (Prior to 1917) - Iraq - Portugal - Germany - Eire
Former Serbian Orders - Union of Socialist Soviet Republics

Until such a time as a more complete publication makes its appearance, this work is earnestly recommended to the collector of decorations and military awards, libraries and universities.

COINS OF THE WORLD

Twentieth Century Issues

Second Edition

A compilation of numismatic knowledge gathered over a long period of years, the original publication of which (in 1938) gave collectors their first authoritative reference work on modern coins. Outstanding authorities, collectors and dealers have contributed their knowledge to the production of this book, making it as complete and correct as possible.

Approximately 4,000 coins are listed and described, with the values given. Nearly 1,500 half tone illustrations show the types of all issues. "Coins of the World" is the standard reference book on modern world coinage.

COMMENTS IN GENERAL

The following letter was received from the First Assistant Postmaster General of Washington, D. C., in reply to an inquiry regarding the Postal Delivery Zone Number System, and payment of indemnity on insured coins.

My dear Mr. Wilson:

Your letter of December 9, 1945, addressed to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, requesting certain information for publication in your "Monthly Rare Coin Bulletin," has been referred to this Bureau for attention.

The Postal Delivery Zone Number System was established as a permanent feature of the postal service in order to expedite the handling and delivery of mail matter. This system was adopted in 123 post offices and has progressed very satisfactorily to date.

The use of the zone number as part of the address enables the Department to handle the letters and other mail matters more expeditiously with the use of inexperienced employees. As stated in your communication, it takes considerable time to train employees to be experienced distributors whereas by the use of the postal delivery zone number, an inexperienced clerk can be trained in a very short period of time.

With regard to insurance on coins, indemnity is payable for the loss of valuable coins contained in the insured parcels for the market (numismatic) value of the coins, within the limit of indemnity fixed by the fee paid. This general policy of adjusting such claims for indemnity is one of long standing.

The fees applicable to domestic insured mail, as well as the parcel post rates, are shown on the enclosed circular. It is recommended, however, that the registry service be used for mailing of coins of unusual value in view of the protective features of that service.

Sincerely yours,

J. M. DONALDSON

First Assistant Postmaster General

Coin dealers might find Parcel Post the more economical method of shipping coins, with the rates running as low as .08 per pound for local zones to $7.97 for 70 pounds for distances over 1,800 miles. The fees for Insured Mail are as follows:

Insured Mail (third and fourth classes) Fees for indemnity limited to:

$5.....3c $25.....10c $50.....15c $200.....25c

A pamphlet containing postal rates on all types of mailing service may be obtained at your local Post Office.

Many banks, no doubt, will use Parcel Post for shipments of small amounts of silver, due to unreasonable rates charged for the same service by the Railway Express Agency.

COINS LOAN STAMPS PLAN

COLLECTORS:

A hobby is fascinating; the real collector aspires to improvement by acquisition of rare and gem-like specimens.

Collections are financial assets - STILL - you do not need to sell a single specimen to realize CASH.

I SPECIALIZE in making LOANS to collectors on UNITED STATES COINS AND STAMPS which are acceptable as collateral for a LOAN.

1. Send your collection by express or registered mail; I appraise your collection based on CURRENT MARKET CONDITIONS. Then send you a loan application and a note and when returned I airmail you my check (or Bank Draft, if you prefer).

2. You select your own payment plan. Loans may be consummated at any time and cost adjusted accordingly. Upon completion of contract your collateral is returned intact at MY expense.

3. Your collection is individually wrapped and stored in a bank vault and insured against theft or fire at my expense. Each employee handling collections is fully bonded and ALL OPERATIONS are UNDER STATE SUPERVISION.
